A Tea Substitute.
It is a very well-known fact on the continent that a raw egg is a certain restorer of tired nerves. A French or German woman will eat a couple of raw eggs for a pick-me-up just as the English woman takes a cup of strong tea, and feels much refreshed thereby.

The "Mock Marriage" Idiotcy.
Another case, this time near Pittsburgh, of two vulgar fools who went through a "mock marriage" ceremony and are now consternation-stricken to find it legally binding! If they would be particularly unhappy in spending their lives together as husband and wife, there would be fine poetic justice in compelling them to do so.—New York Tribune.

"Dr. Thomas' Kalmegon Oil is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—gangrene. It has been used with success in our family for many years."—Mrs. L. Williams, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mystery in Hirschberg Death.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 9.—A day spent in the investigation of the death of Francis D. Hirschberg, who was shot and killed in his home Tuesday, failed to clear the mystery, but two surgeons who performed an autopsy believe Hirschberg was murdered or was killed accidentally, as there were no powder marks. Police officers said that the evidence indicated Hirschberg had committed suicide.

The fact that the revolver found in the reception room where Hirschberg was shot was never before seen by any member of the family supports the belief that the clubman was murdered by a burglar whom he found in the house.

DIPLOMATS IN AUTO SMASH

Guatemalans Hurt In Accident, One Probably Fatally.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Senator Don Juan Barrios, Guatemala's minister of foreign affairs, who is in Washington on a special mission for his government, was probably fatally injured, and Senator Dr. Don Luis Toledo Hierarte, Guatemalan minister to the United States, and Gen. John Drummond, a wealthy coffee planter in South America, were badly hurt in an automobile accident late Tuesday.

The diplomats were riding in a heavy touring car when it turned turtle just after passing over the highway bridge into Virginia, the occupants being hurled beneath the car and pinned under the tonneau. When extricated they were unconscious and bleeding freely from face and scalp wounds.

Senator Barrios, who was removed to the emergency hospital in an ambulance with the three other occupants of the car, is suffering from concussion of the brain and is supposed to have sustained a fracture of the skull, aside from internal injuries. Gen. Drummond suffered lacerations of the face and head.

Southern Commercial Congress.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Expressing the conviction that a great future is about to dawn upon the south, James Bryce, the British ambassador, on Tuesday received a notable reception from the delegates in attendance upon the southern commercial congress. Dr. J. A. Bonsteel of the United States bureau of soils reviewed the work which has been done by the bureau in investigations in the south. He declared that the south is a region of almost boundless agricultural opportunity.

British Squadron Leaves Rio.

Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 9.—The British cruiser squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Sir Percy Scott left here Tuesday night after a week's stay, during which time many entertainments were given the visitors.
